

St. Mark's Presbyterian Church presents

SOCIAL JUSTICE THROUGH MUSIC

This multi-faceted choir festival will feature the celebrated composer Elizabeth Alexander as guest presenter and clinician and will include workshops, discussion forums, music rehearsals and performances.

Saturday, February 6, 2016

Workshops and discussions will include topics of race relations, LGBT issues, religious tolerance, gender equality, and others.

Musicians and non-musicians are welcome to participate!

Elizabeth Alexander –
Composer-in-Residence

"Alexander managed to sculpt light into sound" - Kansas City Metropolis

"witty...playful...a jazzy delight..."
- Minneapolis Star Tribune

"effective both visually and musically..." - Ear Magazine

"Elizabeth Alexander is very gifted, writing in an accessible style well tailored to the requirements of both semi-pro and amateur choruses. - All Music Guide

"More than most composers, Alexander is able to capture a joie de vivre in her works." - Choral Director Magazine

"What a kick-ass piece of music! Thank you for offering it to the world."
- Jason Shelton, music director

"brilliantly innovative..."
- New York Concert Review

"truly inspired..."
- Boston Music Intelligencer

"Alexander's mastery of prosody and declamation results in a marriage between music and text that is dynamic and indelible." - Choral Director Magazine

For more information or to register for the festival, please contact Mike Scionti – celticchoir@gmail.com, 520.395.6551.